This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFATORY NOTE.

This List consists of titles of works having a bearing upon the subject of government regulation of insurance. It is not presented as anything like a complete bibliography or as a guide for the specialist who is familiar with the literature of his subject. It aims to offer some suggestions for the ordinary investigator.

The section devoted to the United States is mostly made up of discussions of the question of Federal supervision. The sections on foreign countries contain works showing regulations in force in the respective countries. As appertaining to the question of government regulation there are included some general treatises on insurance.

The reports of state insurance officers contained in the Library are listed on pages 28–32.

The state insurance laws on pages 33–41.

The following insurance periodicals are received currently by the Library:

The Ætna: a journal devoted to the interests of life and accident insurance, Hartford; American agency bulletin, Boston; American exchange and review, Philadelphia; American insurance journal, Columbus, Ohio; American journal of life insurance, Des Moines; American underwriter, New York; The Argus, Chicago; Baltimore underwriter, Baltimore; Bankers' insurance managers' and agents' magazine, London; Chronicle, a weekly insurance journal, New York; Coast review: a monthly insurance magazine with supplement, San Francisco; The Expositor: devoted to insurance and finance, Newark, N. J.; Indicator: devoted to the interests of insurance, Detroit; Journal of the Institute of actuaries, London; Insurance cases for the month, advance sheets of Murdock's insurance digest, Berrien Springs, Mich.; Insurance law journal, New York; Insurance monitor, New York; Insurance news, Philadelphia; Insurance observer, New York; insurance press, New York; Insurance report, Denver; Insurance solicitor, Boston; Life insurance courant, Oak Park, Ill.; Life insurance educator, Louisville, Ky.; Life insurance independent, New York; Money: a general newspaper devoted to finance, insurance and industry, Pittsburg, Pa.; Monthly journal of insurance economics, Boston; Le Moniteur des assurances, Paris; National messenger, Montpelier, Vt.; New York insurance journal, New York; New York news letter, New York; Rough notes: a journal devoted to insurance and industries, Indianapolis, Ind.; The Standard: a weekly insurance newspaper, Boston; Sunshine: published by the Sun Life assurance company of Canada, Montreal; Views: life, fire and accident insurance, Washington, D. Recommending.

1. Legislation by Congress providing for the supervision of insurance.
2. The repeal of all valued policy laws.
3. A uniform fire policy, the terms of which shall be specifically defined.

4. The repeal of all retaliatory tax laws.
5. Stricter incorporation laws in the several states as they affect the creation of insurance companies; and a federal statute prohibiting the use of the mails to all persons, associations, or corporations transacting the business of insurance in disregard of state or federal regulations.

American bar association. Committee on insurance law. Minority report.

(In American bar association. Report of the twenty-eighth annual meeting, August 23, 24 and 25, 1905, pp. 519–523. Philadelphia, 1905. 8°.)

Signed by W. R. Vance.

"The proper conclusion seems to be that, however much we may desire to believe that insurance is interstate commerce and therefore susceptible of federal supervision, the matter is concluded by the carefully considered judgment of the Supreme Court of the United States, against which, despite frequent assaults by its ablest opponents during a period of nearly forty years, not a single dissenting voice has been raised from the bench. Any act of Congress, with a view to such supervision, would necessarily be unconstitutional and void, and the time and money that would be required to secure its passage could much more profitably be expended in endeavoring to secure some uniform action on the parts of the states based upon a more intelligent understanding of the business and of the real interests of the insuring public."

"As for the remedies to be applied, Englishmen, confronted with the intricate inadequacies of the American Constitution, hesitate to suggest any. But there cannot be much doubt of what the policy-holders in this country would like to see done. They would like to see the whole system of State supervision and State laws swept away and replaced by a single uniform law enforced by permanent Federal officials."

"Es ist angesichts eines Gesetzes von solch grosser volkswirtschaftlicher Bedeutung nicht zu verwundern, dass binnen Jahresfrist nicht weniger als elf Kommentare (Alexander-Katz, Deybeck, von Knebel-Döberitz, Könige, Manes, Müller-Prager, Naundorff, Neumann, Randow [Elsners Assekuranz-Almanach 1902], Rehm und Zehnter) veröffentlicht worden sind. Dagegen fehlt es bis jetzt an einer grösseren zusammenhängenden Darstellung des neuen Rechtszustandes. Diese Lücke soll die vorliegende Arbeit ausfüllen. Sie soll jeden, der sich mit dem öffentlichen Versicherungsrecht befasst, den Studierenden sowohl wie den in der Praxis des Versicherungswesens Stehenden, den Richter und Rechtsanwalt mit den seit dem 1. Januar 1902 geltenden Vorschriften über die Beaufsichtigung der privaten Versicherungsunternehmungen vertraut machen." Vorwort.
